Editor's Remarks

The 1992-1993 school year here at MDCC has truly been an exciting one! The theme for this year's Retrospect is New Beginnings, which is fitting because of the changes and new blood injected into the campus. Not only does the college have a new president, Dr. Bobby Garvin, but also an increased enrollment, new faces in all the performing groups and sports teams, and a new building, the Allied Health Building. Mississippi Delta has made some very remarkable improvements which have furthered the look and style of the campus and this yearbook.

I have enjoyed serving as editor for the '92-'93 school year, and I wish to thank all those who made a difference in this yearbook and in my life. Special thanks go to the staff and Mrs. Karen Dickman for the hard work that they have put forth, and a big thanks goes to Carra Kent for her willingness to work at any hour on this yearbook. I would also like to thank the Ambassadors and Mrs. Strawbridge who are like my family, and all my friends on this campus who have brightened my life just by being in it. Last of all, I wish to thank one of the most important people to enter my life, my brother.

Sincerely,
Joseph Coker IV

Mrs. Sandra Moore

One of the most outstanding and dedicated supporters of every activity and program at Mississippi Delta Community College is Mrs. Sandra Moore. She has spent most of her life in Moorhead, where she attended Moorhead Elementary School, Moorhead High School, and Mississippi Delta. She received her bachelor's and master's degrees from Delta State and taught for a short time at Starkville High and Indianola Junior High before beginning teaching at MDCC. While at MDCC, Mrs. Moore has helped found the Spectator Club and the Leadership Class, which she teaches in addition to her English classes. She sponsored the yearbook during the time that there was no journalism teacher and has been chairman of the Language Arts Department since 1990. Students at Mississippi Delta know that any time an event is held on campus, they can count on Mrs. Moore to be in attendance to give her support. On behalf of all MDCC students, we would like to thank Mrs. Moore for going far beyond the call of duty for us. The 1993 Retrospect is dedicated to the H.E.A.D.W.A.E. faculty honoree of the year, Mrs. Sandra Moore.

Julie Betts, Lisa Wigfall, Kim Journey, Gwendolyn Page, Holly Fuller, and Betty Cobbins and their escorts.

The Student Government Association and the homecoming faculty committee worked together to make this year's event a success. The theme for Homecoming '92 was "Trojan Explosion." Students dressed each day in conjunction with the daily spirit theme. On Tuesday night during spirit week, a cookout was held at the boys' dorm. The crowd was entertained by a lively band, and the night concluded with a vivid display of fireworks. On Wednesday morning, the annual homecoming assembly was held in the coliseum. The homecoming court was presented, and the band and Delta Dancers performed. On Thursday evening, the homecoming dance was held, featuring the music of several campus students known to MDCC as "Room 105." Friday was homecoming T-shirt day. And on Saturday, a variety of alumni reunions were held. Pre-game entertainment was provided in the coliseum by the Delta Impressions, cheerleaders, Delta Dancers, and Ambassadors. During the halftime of the game, sophomore Kim Journey of Leland was named homecoming queen. The Trojans rolled to victory over East Mississippi Community College.

The 1992 Retrospect Beauty Revue was held November 18 in the Fine Arts Auditorium. The 23 contestants were judged on their poise and appearance in afternoon interviews and on stage that night. As the three judges from the Miss Mississippi Pageant in Vicksburg met to make their decision, the crowd was entertained by members of the Ambassadors Showchoir and the special guest of the evening Kandace Williams, Miss Mississippi. Although all the performances were spectacular, Sam Thomas's gyrating rendition of Elvis's "Hound Dog" had at least one audience member dancing in the aisle. Miss Mississippi gave a very special vocal performance, including one number in which the children in the audience participated on stage. The winners were then presented by Dr. James Gordon, Master of Ceremonies. This year's revue, which was sponsored by the yearbook and coordinated by Mr. Doug Adams, was truly a tremendous success.

Leadership Class

Leadership Class

The Leadership Development Program, sponsored by Phi Theta Kappa honor society and the Kellogg Foundation, was held for the second year. Students are selected by faculty members and students based on their leadership ability, motivational drive, and involvement in extra-curricular activities. Instruction is in the areas of public service, time management, delegating responsibility, and other life skills. The course helps students develop respect for the opinions of others and deal with problems which do not have simple solutions.

Front: Robin Ratliff, secretary; Garrick Conner, president; Duane Stauffer, vice president. Back: Richard Ralston, senator; Chip Burnside, senator; Kelli Lewis, senator.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association officers serve as a link between the students and administration. In addition to sponsoring and promoting activities such as dances and movies, the SGA worked to improve the environment at the college by working with college officials to restrict the use of tobacco on campus. The officers also assisted in planning open dorm nights and with such festivities as homecoming and Spring Fest. The officers also attended several leadership conferences. SGA president Garrick Conner served on the advisory board of the Hour of Educational Accountability, a community college public awareness campaign which was launched in September.

Phi Theta Kappa

The Zeta Zeta Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa fraternity was inaugurated at MDCC in 1947. The membership is composed of those students whose grades rank in the upper 10 per cent of the college enrollment and who receive unqualified endorsement by the faculty committee on honors and awards and the active fraternity members. In addition to the requirements of superior scholarship and leadership, the candidate must show evidence of good character. This year some members attended the Mississippi-Louisiana Regional Leadership Conference, which was held at Millsaps College and the regional convention at Holmes Community College in Grenada. New members were inducted in a spring ceremony in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Phi Beta Lambda

Phi Beta Lambda is a nationally affiliated professional business association. The MDCC chapter has 82 members. The club sponsors a business seminar in the fall of each year for juniors and seniors in high schools in the 8-county area. In the spring the organization hosts a computer programming contest for students in the area. Winners of the contest compete in the state contest. The monthly club meetings feature guest speakers from the field of business.

The Agriculture Club includes students who are majoring in Farm Management Technology or Horticulture. The club's activities include seminars, field trips, and social gatherings. This club provides an excellent opportunity for students to be exposed to knowledge of agricultural activities not available through classroom activities.

Agriculture Club

Seated: Amy Beckum, president. Standing: Randall Newsome, vice president; Addison Hall, program chairman; Terry Lynn Hendon, reporter; Denise Hill, social chairman.

Art Club

The Art Club exists to allow art majors and others interested in art the opportunity to sponsor art related activities on campus. Examples of such activities are programs by area artists, advertising executives, cartoonists, etc.; social gatherings in the art department or nearby restaurants; and community service projects such as the recent painting of the walls of the animal shelter in Indianola. The club also sponsors trips to galleries and to various locations for painting on-the-spot scenery.

Spectator Club

The Spectator Club is a literary organization sponsored by the Language Arts Department. The purpose of the club is to expose students to various works of literature, and to encourage them to write their own. The Spectator Club holds an annual literary contest during the year, and the winners' submissions are published in the At Pen Point magazine. The club also invites different speakers to come to MDCC to share their expertise in literary fields.

Back: Elizabeth Woods, president; Christie Hendrix, secretary; Foreground: Dawn Weaver, treasurer.

BSU

The Baptist Student Union is open to all religious affiliations, not just Baptist. Each day the organization sponsors a noontime Bible study open to faculty and students. The BSU serves as an environment in which students can meet, share, and draw closer to God. The BSU has been to 13 countries and traveled more than 125,000 miles on mission trips all over the world. The members have also formed a chorus, Upward Journey, which is directed by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Abrams. Upward Journey travels throughout the surrounding counties informing churches of the BSU at MDCC.

The Delta HERALD

Changes in layout and design among improvements made in 1992-93 paper

By Garrick D. Conner
Managing Editor

The Delta Herald staff found no trouble staying busy this year.

The staff worked together to meet the goals set by the editors at the beginning of the year.

This year, the newspaper took on an entirely different look with a different format. The editors decided to switch from regular sized news pages to tabloid sized ones.

And along with the new size came the much needed resource of desk-top publishing.

The college purchased a state-of-the-art Macintosh computer system, which allowed the editors to layout the newspaper to a large degree on the terminal screen.

Not only did this year's newspaper have a new look, the editors and staff worked hard to improve the overall content of the publication.

Special attention was given to news stories and editorials, while most of the newspaper's photographs came from college photographers Joe Wilson and Lawrence Kenneth.

Also this year, the newspaper

featured much more advertising than usual -- in part, we believe, due to the new look of the paper and the increased frequency with which it was published.

All in all, 1992-93 was an outstanding year for the Delta Herald. And with a lot of hard work and increased effort on the part of the entire staff, the newspaper truly became a more readable, enlightening, and polished product that the college can be proud of.

Vocational and Industrial Clubs of America

VICA is a student organization for vocational/technical and health occupations students. This year the club boasts 275 members on the MDCC campus. VICA members sharpen their job skills through local, state, and national competitions. They also conduct competitions for high school students in the district. The club sponsors an annual blood drive and an annual fruit sale to help raise money for trips to state competitions. This year the VICA club took part in the Adopt-A-Highway program.

Delta Connection

The Delta Connection members serve as a recruiting team and as hosts and hostesses during events held on campus at Mississippi Delta. Their efforts are responsible for some of the recent increase in enrollment MDCC is currently enjoying. The team travels the Delta visiting high schools and sharing their enthusiasm for Mississippi Delta Community College with students who will be selecting a college to attend for the next year.

The new $1.37 million Allied Health Building is indeed a great “new beginning” of which MDCC can be proud. Courses which in the past were taught in the vocational and science buildings, such as radiology and emergency medical technology, now have brand new facilities. Because of the growth of MDCC, the building provides much needed classroom space as well as a new parking lot.

The '92-'93 Ambassadors Showchoir began their new year with a special performance for the President of the United States during his visit to Greenville. The 30 member group is under the direction of Mrs. Semonne Strawbridge and performs at business dinners and meetings, as well as visiting high schools. The Ambassadors' dance numbers are choreographed by Dwight Jordan, choreographer of Six Flags Over America and co-founder of Showchoir Camps of America. The Ambassadors annually host a two-day show choir camp for high school students during the year. This year the Ambassadors will perform at the Miss Greenville Pageant, the Mid-Delta Fine Arts convention, and for other organizations. The group is also planning a trip to Chicago to participate in the Collegiate Showchoir Showcase. The Ambassadors were one of only eight groups selected to attend. The '92-'93 Ambassadors will continue making Mississippi Delta Community College shine through their tradition of excellence.

Delta Dancers

Over the years, the Delta Dancers have become well known for their energetic and unique dance styles. The group consists of men and women from surrounding counties who generate a sincere interest and talent for dance. The group performs for football and basketball games, civic clubs, conventions, schools, activities, and two independent productions a year. "A New Beginning" is the way the dancers start the year. There is always a challenge to rebuild a strong team.

Trojan Cheerleaders

The cheerleading squad at Mississippi Delta plays a vital role in promoting school spirit and support for athletics. During the football season, the squad stands along the sidelines providing motivation to the team, along with astounding the crowd with stunts and pyramids. Once the football season comes to a close, the cheerleaders move right in to basketball season, adding encouragement to both the girls and the boys. Occasionally, the squad will participate in promoting spirit for the baseball team. The squad also participates with the Delta Dancers during the annual Christmas show. The squad travels to surrounding high schools to help in recruiting during the spring semester.

The Ambassadors' Accomplishments

The Ambassadors Showchoir of Mississippi Delta Community College participated in Collegiate Showcase Invitational on April 1-4, 1993 in Chicago, Illinois. The Collegiate Showcase is a forum for exceptional showchoirs, vocal ensembles and individual vocalists to perform in a concert format. Additionally, participants have the opportunity to share ideas with professional artists during clinic sessions and to observe performances presented by the participating groups.

Each group has a 30 minute time allotment to set-up, perform and clear the stage. All performances will feature a live band to provide accompaniment for the groups. Following a group's performance, a critic will give a brief clinic to the ensemble in a private setting. At the conclusion of all performances, all showchoirs will be joined together to form a massed choir to perform the world premiere of a commissioned work by the Keynotes Arts Associates.

Showcase performances was held in the Pavillon Theater of the Bismark Hotel. Critics and clinicians to oversee the event will be from Walt Disney World, America Sings!, New York Voices, or directors of other famous groups.

The groups who participated were the Macomers from Macomb Community College, MI; Blue Review from Milikin University, IL; The Ambassadors from Mississippi Delta Community College, MS; Showcase Singers from Riverside Community College, CA; Sounds of Trident of Trident Technical College, SC; Varsity Singers of the University of Toledo, OH; the UWGB Sound Idea from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, WI; and the Waterloo Community Playhouse Showstoppers of Waterloo

Community College, IA. The Host Vocal Ensemble was the Gold Company of Western Michigan University, MI.

The Ambassadors worked very hard preparing for this trip. The groups who participated are the best in the nation, and the Ambassadors had many extra afternoon and night practices to prepare themselves. The Ambassadors' show has been choreographed by Dwight Jordan and Linda Anderson, two outstanding choreographers from Illinois. The vocal clinicians who assisted the Ambassadors were Paul Gulsvig of Wisconsin and Winona Costello of Jackson, Mississippi. The success of the Ambassadors could not have happened without the hard work of each member and especially the director of the group, Semonne Strawbridge.

Memories '93

Memories '93

Memories '93

In memory of

Harmon Boggs

1927-1992

Dean of Academic Affairs

*For all the lives you touched;
For all the contributions of time,
money, and energy you made;
And for the professional manner in which you carried out your daily responsibilities, we offer our most sincere thanks.*

*'Death comes to all
But great achievements build a monument
Which shall endure until the sun grows cold.'
-Georg Frabricius*

*'Blessed is the influence of one true,
loving human soul on another.'
-George Eliot*

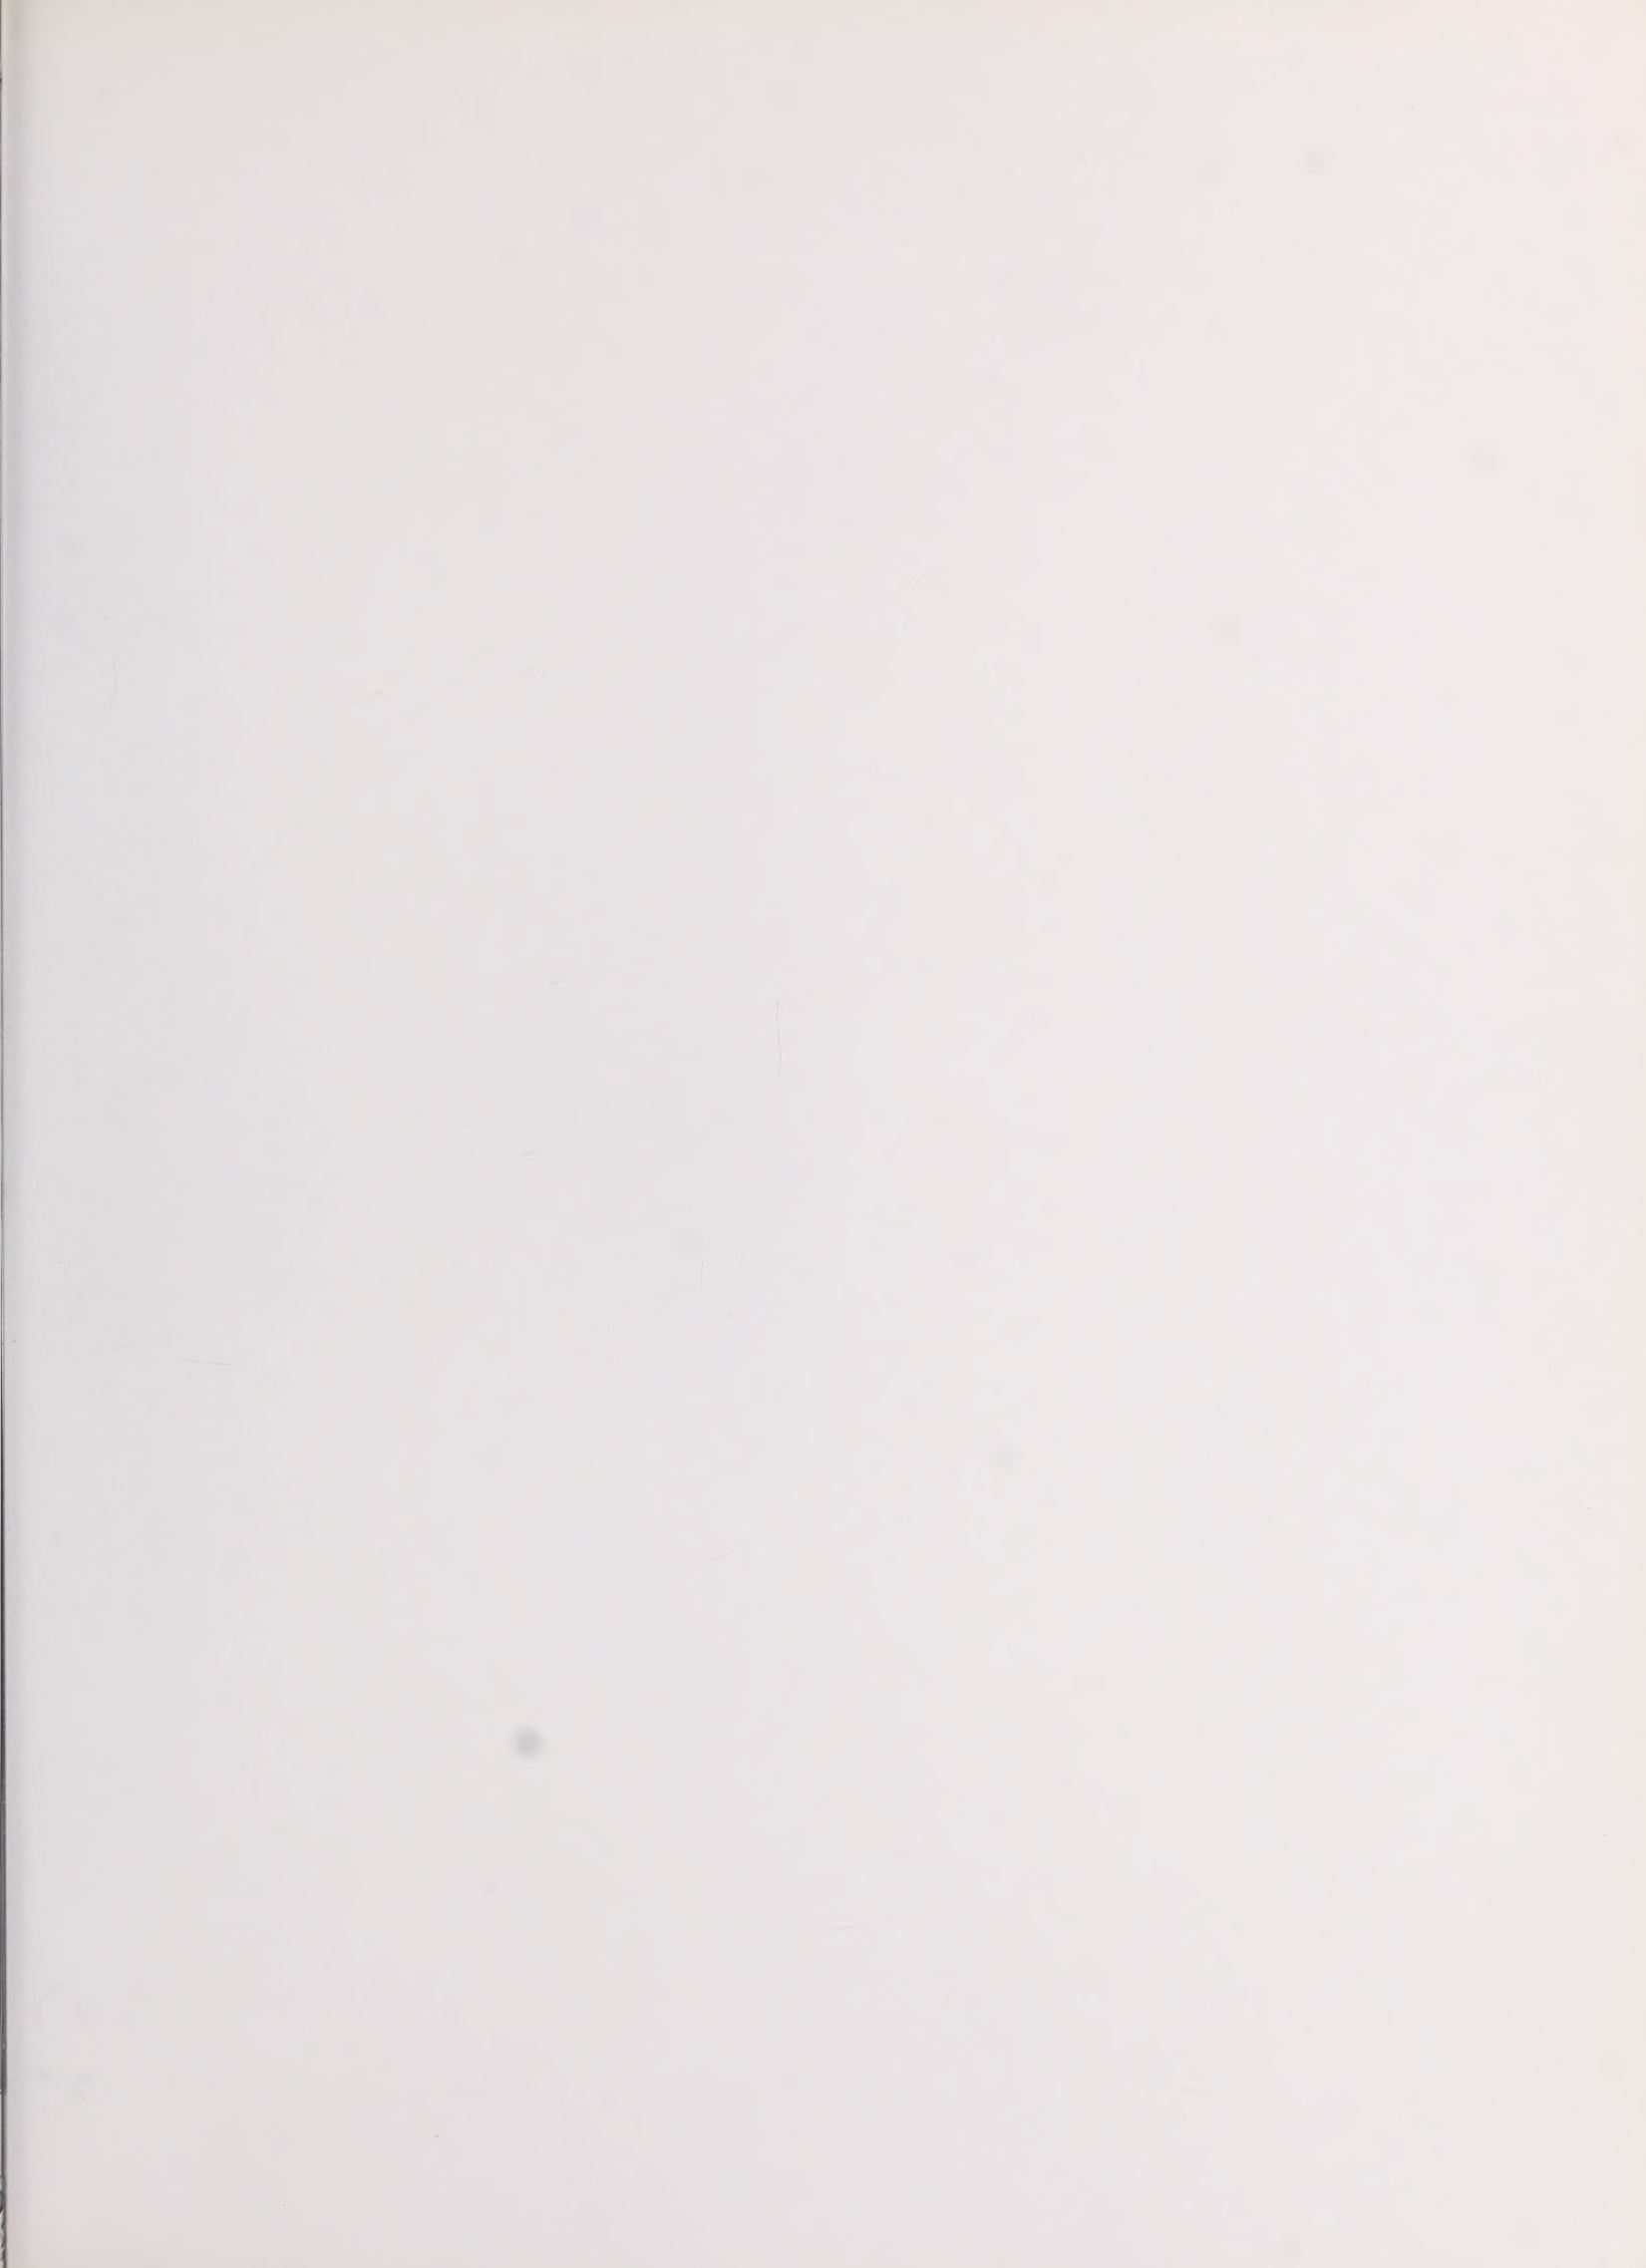

*'I am a part of all that I have met.'
-Alfred, Lord Tennyson*

In this moment in life...

Think freely. Practice patience.
Smile often. Savor special moments.
Live God's message. Make new friends. Rediscover old ones. Tell those you love that you do. Feel deeply. Forget trouble. Forgive an enemy. Hope. Grow. Be crazy!
Count your blessings. Observe miracles.
Make them happen. Discard worry.
Give. Give in. Trust enough to take.
Pick some flowers. Share them. Keep a promise. Look for rainbows. Gaze
at stars. See beauty everywhere.
Work hard. Be wise. Try to understand. Take time for people.
Make time for yourself. Laugh heartily. Spread joy. Take a chance.
Reach out. Let someone in. Try something new. Slow down. Be soft sometimes. Believe in yourself. Trust others.
See a sunrise. Listen to rain.
Reminisce. Cry when you need to.
Trust life. Have faith. Enjoy wonder.
Comfort a friend. Have good ideas.
Make some mistakes. Learn from them.
Celebrate life!!

*This is not The End,
simply a New Beginning.*
